

CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT.

My Little Lad And I.

I take a little hand in mine,
And walk the village street,
With chirp and chatter as we go,
In mingled converse sweet,
And pleasant salutations
From every one we meet,
Dear little lad and I.
I take the little hand in mine,
To climb the neighboring hill,
To pluck wild flowers, or to trace
A laughing mountain rill,
By which, when weary or athirst,
We pause to drink our fill,
Dear little lad and I.
I take two little hands in mine,
My boy upon my knee;
I listen to a pleasant voice,
Made rich with notes of glee,
I feel a breath against my cheek,
A breath of life to me—
Dear little lad and I.
I take those little hands in mine;
I hear a prattler's tongue
Repeating childish thoughts and
So sweetly said and sung; [songs.]
In harmony with spirit harps,
For heavenly music strung—
Dear little lad and I.
With those two little hands in mine,
I think of other days;
One generation full of years
Between our parting ways,
And yet our souls clasp hands across
The chasm in close embrace—
Dear little lad and I.
Those little hands, so very fair,
God keep them ever white;
Those little feet unfettered yet,
May they e'er walk aright;
That little life so precious now,
May it be ever bright.
Dear little lad, pray I.
—Good Housekeeping.

DEAR EDITOR:—I will inform you and the little readers of our column, that I was at a children's meeting at the German Baptist church last Sunday. The meeting was real good. Speeches were made by four or five persons present, they were interesting and instructive.

I will tell you that I was at our church yesterday and last evening. Mr. Cober preached. I like to go to church, but I can't go every time. I must close for this time.

MELVIN B. SUMMERS.

Louisville, Ohio.

DEAR EDITOR:—Today I am visiting with my cousin, Angie Summers and she wants me to write a letter for the children's column in the EVANGELIST.

I will tell the little readers that I have not seen my parents since last spring, for they live in Michigan, and I am staying at Simon Hershberger's, near Louisville, O., I like it there; they are kind to me. But I intend to go up to my parents in a few weeks. My pa and ma take the paper and I hope that they will see my letter in print. I was 11 years old last winter. I will close for this time, may write again when I get up to my new home.

MOLLIE SNYDER.

Louisville, O.

DEAR EDITOR:—It has been a long time since I have written for the paper, so I will endeavor to write a few lines. We have preaching every two weeks at the Mt. Zion church, and every four weeks in Bro. Joshua Berry's barn; but it will soon be too cold to hold meetings in the barn. We have a good Sunday School at Mt. Zion with an average attendance of about thirty. We had our S. S. Celebration on the 14th of Sept. in the grove near by the church. We had a very pleasant time. Bro. J. H. Palmer preached his farewell sermon today. He expects to preach for the Brethren of Williams Co.

the coming year. Bro. Johnny is a very worthy young minister, and we are sorry to lose him. We will remember and pray for him and hope while he is making new friends in Williams Co., he will not forget his old friends in Hocking. I send 10 cts. for the Mission Fund.

EVA KISTLER.

Logan, Ohio.

Dear Aunt Sterling:—You know that when you left our house we were feeling very sad over the affliction of little brother Voigt. He has been very sick this week with phthisis. He is better now. Aunt Lizzie, I missed going to Sunday School last Sunday. I was sick last week. I was bed-fast three days and on Sunday morning mamma thought it was too damp for me. I had such a bad cold. The Doctor told me to be careful or I would have the pneumonia. I am weak yet. So you see I did not miss you at Sunday School. I have sad news to tell you. Little cousin Emma Spears was buried last Sunday at 1 o'clock. She looked so sweet as she lay still in death. Aunt Norah, her Sunday School teacher, brought her some flowers and vines. They were laid around her. She has gone to meet the angels of heaven and her papa who went nine months ago, and I hope we may all meet her there.

I hope the Editor will bear with this long letter. With love to Uncle Andrew and you I will say goodbye, asking a speedy reply.

From your niece,
ESTELLA C. STERLING.

Capital Letters.

Many children, as well as grown persons do not know just where to use capital letter. No writing looks well when nearly every word begins with a capital letter. We here give you a few of the principal words where they should be used.

Always begin with a capital letter:

The first word of every sentence.

The first word after every full stop.

The first word after an introductory clause.

The first word of a direct quotation.

The first word in every line of poetry.

Proper names—of persons, countries, cities, rivers, mountains, months' days, &c.

All the names of the Deity should begin with capitals.

The pronoun I and the interjection O should be capitals.

Besides these there are several other places where it is proper to use capitals, but if you learn the above rules well, you then can have a lesson of the more difficult places of their use.

Modesty.

One of the chief charms of young ladies—of older ones, too, for that matter—is modesty. Without this there must always be a discouraging discount upon their attractions. There is a false modesty that no one recommends or admires, and there is an artificial kind provided by veils and certain forms of retirement that only travesties that which is true; but the genuine delicacy which shows itself as a part of female character is never without its beauty. It is one of the virtues that American young women are in special danger of losing. The easy mingling of the sexes as part of our American liberty, and the open, garish way in which girls are permitted to appear in public places and on streets, are destructive of traits they should be chiefly careful to cultivate. The young girl who is not able to inspire a young man with respect for her modesty is wanting in moral power.—United Presbyterian.

Keep your conduct abreast of your conscience, and very soon your conscience will be illumined by the radiance of God.—W. M. Taylor.

Whatever is affected by sin can and may be saved by grace from that sad effect. Whatever has effected by Satan can be destroyed by Christ.

YODER & CURRY,
LAND, LOAN & INSURANCE AGENTS,
Correspondence in English and German.
Lockwood, Dade County., Mo.

The lands we have for sale are located in a country that, for a combination of those natural resources which add to the pleasure and comfort of man, cannot be excelled, if equalled, by any other locality on this Continent. We refer to the salubrity and healthfulness of its climate, the productiveness of its soil, the profuseness and variety of its agricultural products, and the intelligence, morality and good character of its citizens. Comparing its present condition with its possibilities, this country although no longer on the confines of civilization, is yet in its infancy; and investments made in farms now will, eventually, yield a large percentage of gain in value while the country grows into the magnificent proportions destined for it by the great Architect of its natural resources.

We subjoin a partial list of the farms we have to sell, and we will take pleasure in answering any questions pertaining more particularly to the inducements we have to offer to parties desiring to locate in the great and growing West.

No. 50. 80 Acres, good land; all clear; fenced with hedge and barbed wire; orchard and shade trees planted; good well; a house that cost $300 to build; a western barn; six miles from Lockwood and within four miles to coal and timber. Price $2,000.

No. 51. 80 acres; all fenced and broke; good house; small orchard; all fenced in hedge; 4 miles from Lockwood, in a good neighborhood. Price $2,400.

No. 52. 35 acres; all fenced in barbed wire and hedge; 65 acres broke; house 14x24; 3 1/2 miles from Kings Point; 7 miles from Lockwood. Price $1,400.

No. 53. 160 acres; all fenced with barbed wire; 45 acres broke; good well; 200 apple trees 3 yrs. old, and other fruit; house and barn; 3 miles from Lockwood. Price $25,000 per acre, on good terms.

No. 55. 320 acres; 2 miles from Lockwood; good frame house 200 apple trees; peach trees and other fruit; a good well; also a tenant house newly built; barn and other buildings. Price $35,000 per acre. This tract may be sold in two parts.

No. 60. 40 acres; 20 acres fenced; 15 acres timber; never failing spring of water; good land on public road; 2 miles from Lockwood. Price $600.

We will change the above list from time to time, but if any time parties desiring land will write to us describing what they want, we will try to supply their wants. Be sure to see this country before locating elsewhere.

AGENTS WANTED
MISSOURI STEAM WASHER
Active, honest persons all over the country, with or without team.
JOHN C. EVANS, President, Mo. writes: "I stand up and affirm that a Washer saves more hard labor and money in a large family than any other labor-saving machine. If you will get up any statement that will take as much labor off of one article as a Washer takes off of the women, and save as much money as it does and cost no more, I would sell one at every house. If they had it take the washers from under their feet and enable them to pay for it. I think the Washer I bought last summer. It is the best machine ever invented by man. We have just got good dinners on Monday as on any other day. If you run short, you can not buy one for $100. I will ship a sample in these Ladies' Magazine on a week's trial on liberal terms. A thousand per cent the best washer in the world for saving labor, clothes and soap. Pays capable agents big money. Write for particulars.
